Music

Our popular annual concert to kick off the season of Advent will be held this year on December 1st @ 7 pm. The evening will feature a joyful, intergenerational event, with wonderful performances by soloists, small ensembles, the official debut of our Chimes Choir, our Adult Choir, youth, and members of our congregation. There will also be a Christmas sing-along, Ugly Sweater Contest, candy bowl guessing game, refreshments, and fellowship! Please bring your family and friends to this wonderful event!

“O Holy Night”

Christmas Cantata

December 17th, Sunday 10 am

This year, we will be singing the magnificent “Gloria” by Antonio Vivaldi, accompanied by a small ensemble, which will be led by our very own, 17-year-old Joshua Hung. We look forward to celebrating the season with this stunning Cantata.

Christmas Pageant Rehearsal & Decoration

December 23, Saturday

10 am

In the season of Christmas, we change the sanctuary colors to white and gold, a celebration of the purity of the infant who was born in a manger, and yet a King with all the splendor of God come to dwell with God's people.

*“Wishing you
&
your family*

a joyous Christmas filled with love, peace, and hope.”
